EmpowerMENt by

Dr. Adam Anthony

equips Black men and adoptees to lead with identity, purpose, and power.

Vision & Mission

Mission

To equip Black men and adoptees with tools for healing, growth, and leadership, creating equitable opportunities through mentorship, advocacy, and education.

Vision

A world where black men and adoptees thrive as confident, purpose-driven leaders who break barriers and inspire change.

Belong.
Lead.
Thrive.

EmpowerMENt partners with schools, universities, and youth-serving organizations to strengthen identity, mentorship, and leadership development — especially for boys and young men of color, adoptees, and foster care alumni.

Founded by Dr. Adam Anthony a same-race Black adoptee and Doctor of Education in Leadership, EmpowerMENt bridges lived experience with research-based frameworks to help institutions move from awareness to implementation.

Belonging is not a one-time engagement — it is a continuous leadership practice.
