The Provision of Goods and Services to Persons with Disabilities

Cash Money will make every reasonable effort to ensure that its policies, practices and procedures are consistent with the principles of dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity by:

- ensuring that all customers receive the same value and quality
- allowing customers with disabilities to do things in their own ways, at their own pace when accessing goods and services as long as this does not present a safety risk
- using alternative methods when possible, to ensure that customers with disabilities have access to the same services, in the same place and in a similar manner
- taking into account individual needs when providing goods and services
- communicating in a manner that takes into account the customer's disability.

Assistive Devices

Customer's Own Assistive Device(s)

Persons with disabilities may use their own assistive devices as required when accessing goods or services provided by Cash Money. In cases where the assistive device presents a safety concern or where accessibility might be an issue, other reasonable measures will be used to ensure the access of goods and services.

Assistive Devices Provided by Cash Money

The following assistive devices are available on a first come, first served basis and upon request, to assist customers in accessing our goods and services:

- Magnifying glasses
- Paper and pens

Guide Dogs and Service Animals

A customer with a disability that is accompanied by guide dog or service animal will be allowed access to premises that are open to the public unless otherwise excluded by law. "No pet" policies do not apply to guide dogs, service animals and/or service dogs.

If there is a conflict between a provision of this Act or of a regulation under this or any other Act relating to banned breeds (such as pitbulls) and a provision of a by-law passed by a municipality relating to these breeds, the provision that is more restrictive in relation to controls or bans on these breeds prevails.

Recognizing a Guide Dog and/or Service Animal

If it is not readily apparent that the animal is being used by the customer for reasons relating to his or her disability, Cash Money may request verification from the customer.

Verification may include:

- A letter from a physician or nurse confirming that the person requires the animal for reasons related to the disability
- A valid identification card signed by the Attorney General of Canada
- A certificate of training from a recognized guide dog or service animal training school

Care and Control of the Animal

The customer that is accompanied by a guide dog and/or service animal is responsible for maintaining care and control of the animal at all times.

If a health and safety concern present itself, for example in the form of a severe allergy to the animal, Cash Money will make all reasonable efforts to meet the needs of all individuals.

Support Persons

If a customer with a disability is accompanied by a support person, Cash Money will ensure that both persons are allowed to enter the premises together and that the customer is not prevented from having access to the support person.
