ANGAMA

Between Heaven and Earth

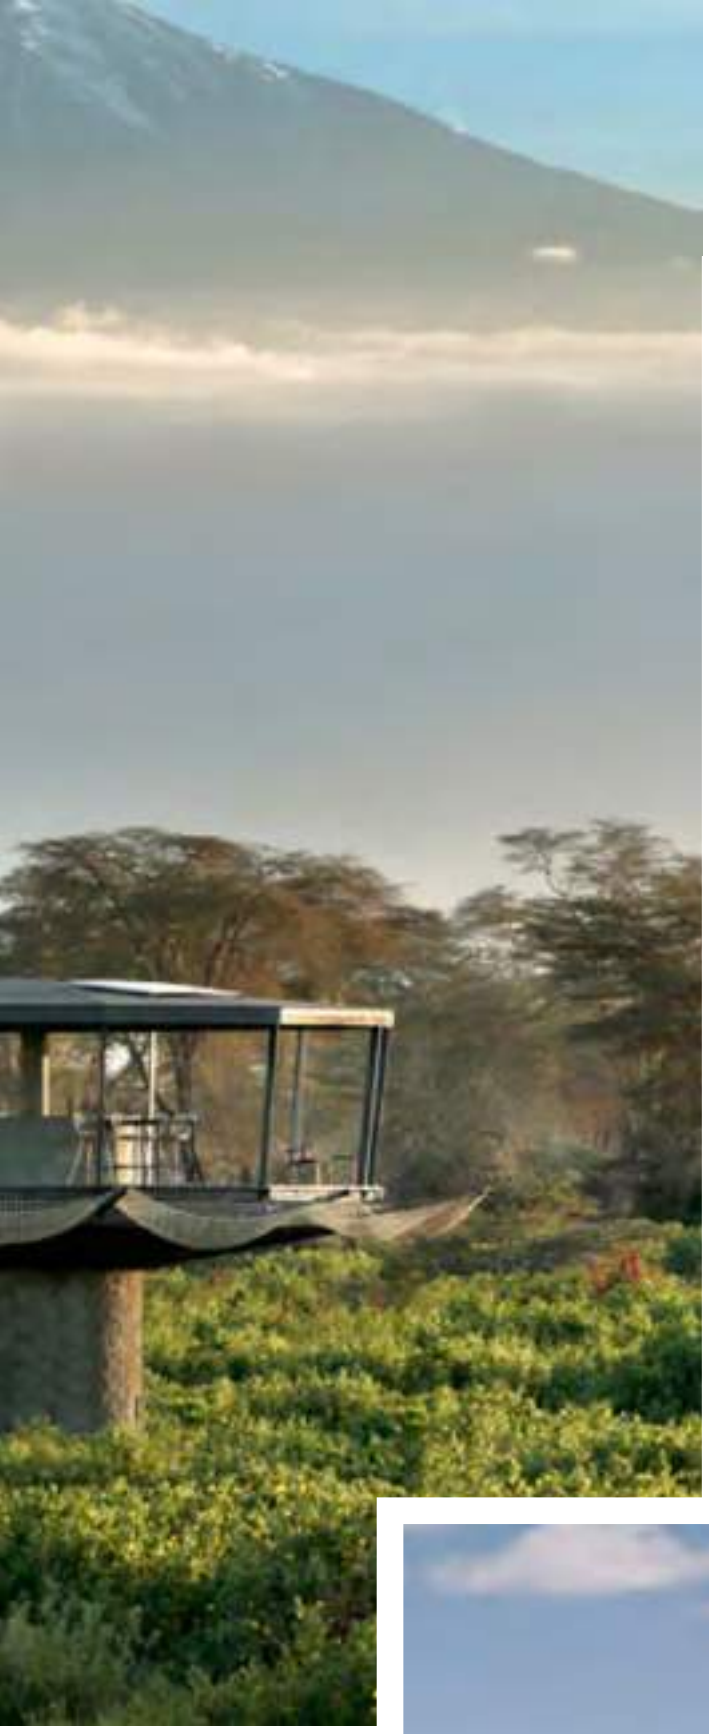

Angama is more than a safari brand – it's a philosophy rooted in care for guests, team members, and the surrounding communities, both human and wild. Named after the Swahili word for «suspended in mid-air,» Angama offers deeply personalized, high-touch safari experiences in extraordinary corners of East Africa.

Its flagship property, Angama Mara, is dramatically perched above Kenya's Maasai Mara, offering sweeping views over one of Africa's richest wildlife reserves. The design draws inspiration from local Maasai architecture and iconic cinematic moments, with tented suites spread across two scenic kopjes.

In southern Kenya, Angama Amboseli sits in the lush Kimana Sanctuary beneath the towering Mount Kilimanjaro. Surrounded by Fever Tree forests, the lodge offers an intimate experience among elephants, including the rare Super Tuskers.

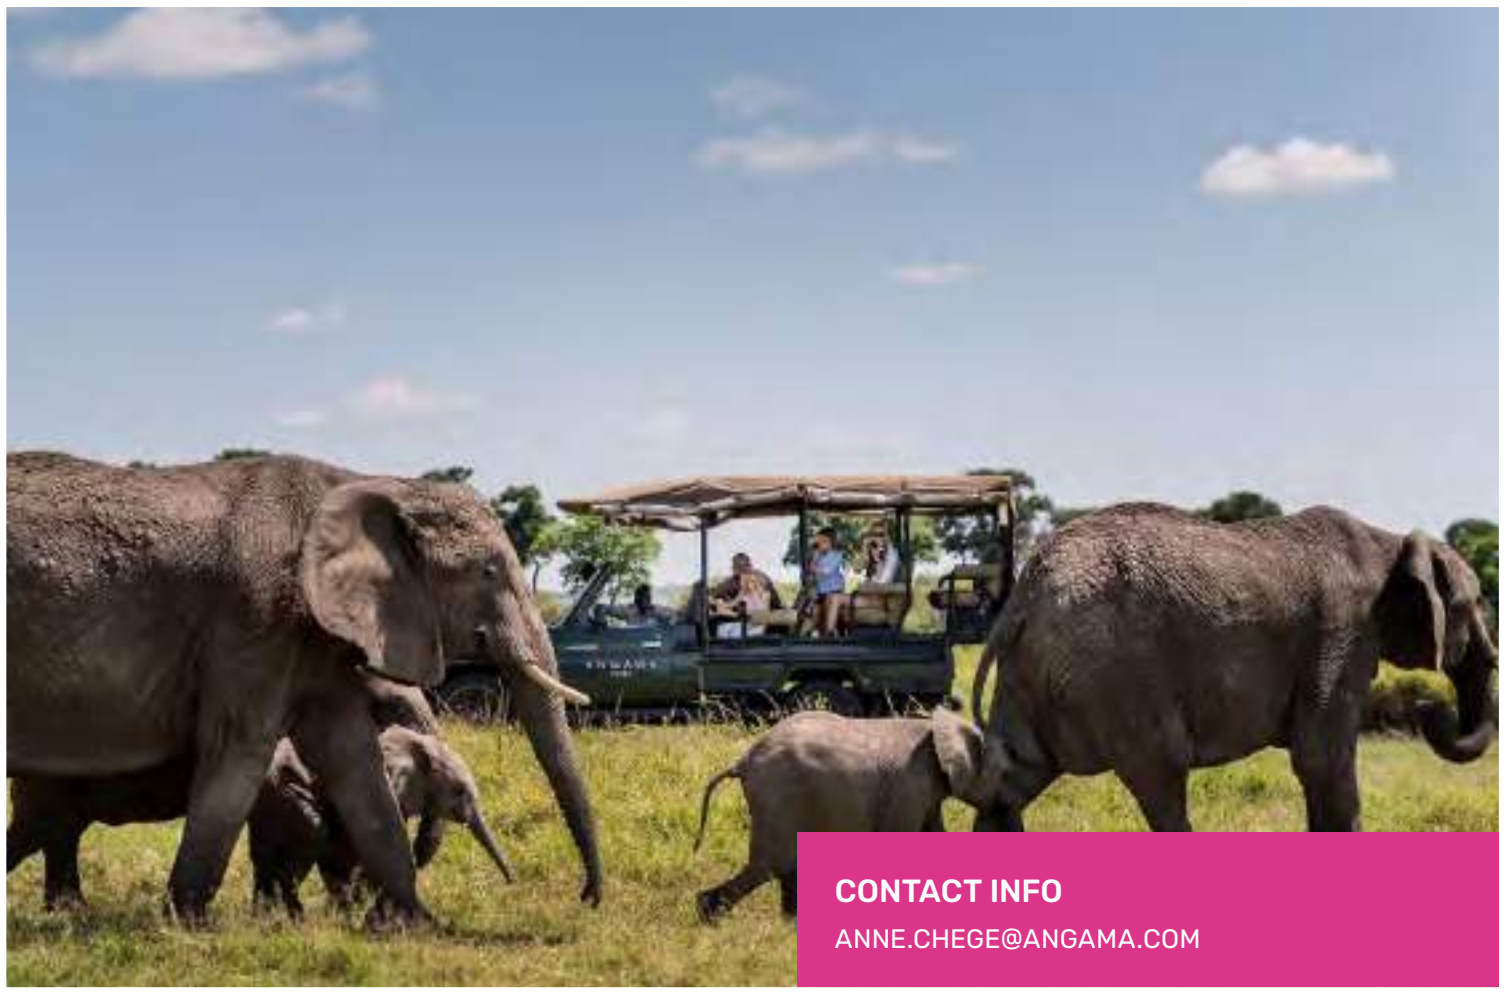

For guests seeking a more immersive wilderness stay, Angama Safari Camp provides a light-footprint, mobile experience deep in the Mara Triangle. Open seasonally during the Great Migration, the camp captures the spirit of classic safaris with elegant simplicity.

Together, Angama's three distinct experiences deliver unforgettable journeys into the heart of East Africa's wild beauty.

VINTRY & MERCER

Connecting you to the best of the City of London

There are hotels in London that place you near the action, and then there is Vintry&Mercer, a hotel that places you inside the story.

Tucked among the winding lanes and historic guild halls of the City of London, this intimate five-star retreat draws its character from the neighborhood's centuries-old trading heritage. The very names Vintry and Mercer pay homage to the wine merchants and silk traders who once shaped these streets, while the hotel itself offers a decidedly contemporary interpretation of London's past.

Its 92 individually designed rooms and suites blend rich textures, thoughtful details, and understated luxury, creating spaces that feel more like a stylish London residence than a traditional hotel. Beyond the guestrooms, the property invites guests to linger: in The Library, a cozy gathering space inspired by the city›s mercantile history, or atop the celebrated Mercer Roof Terrace.

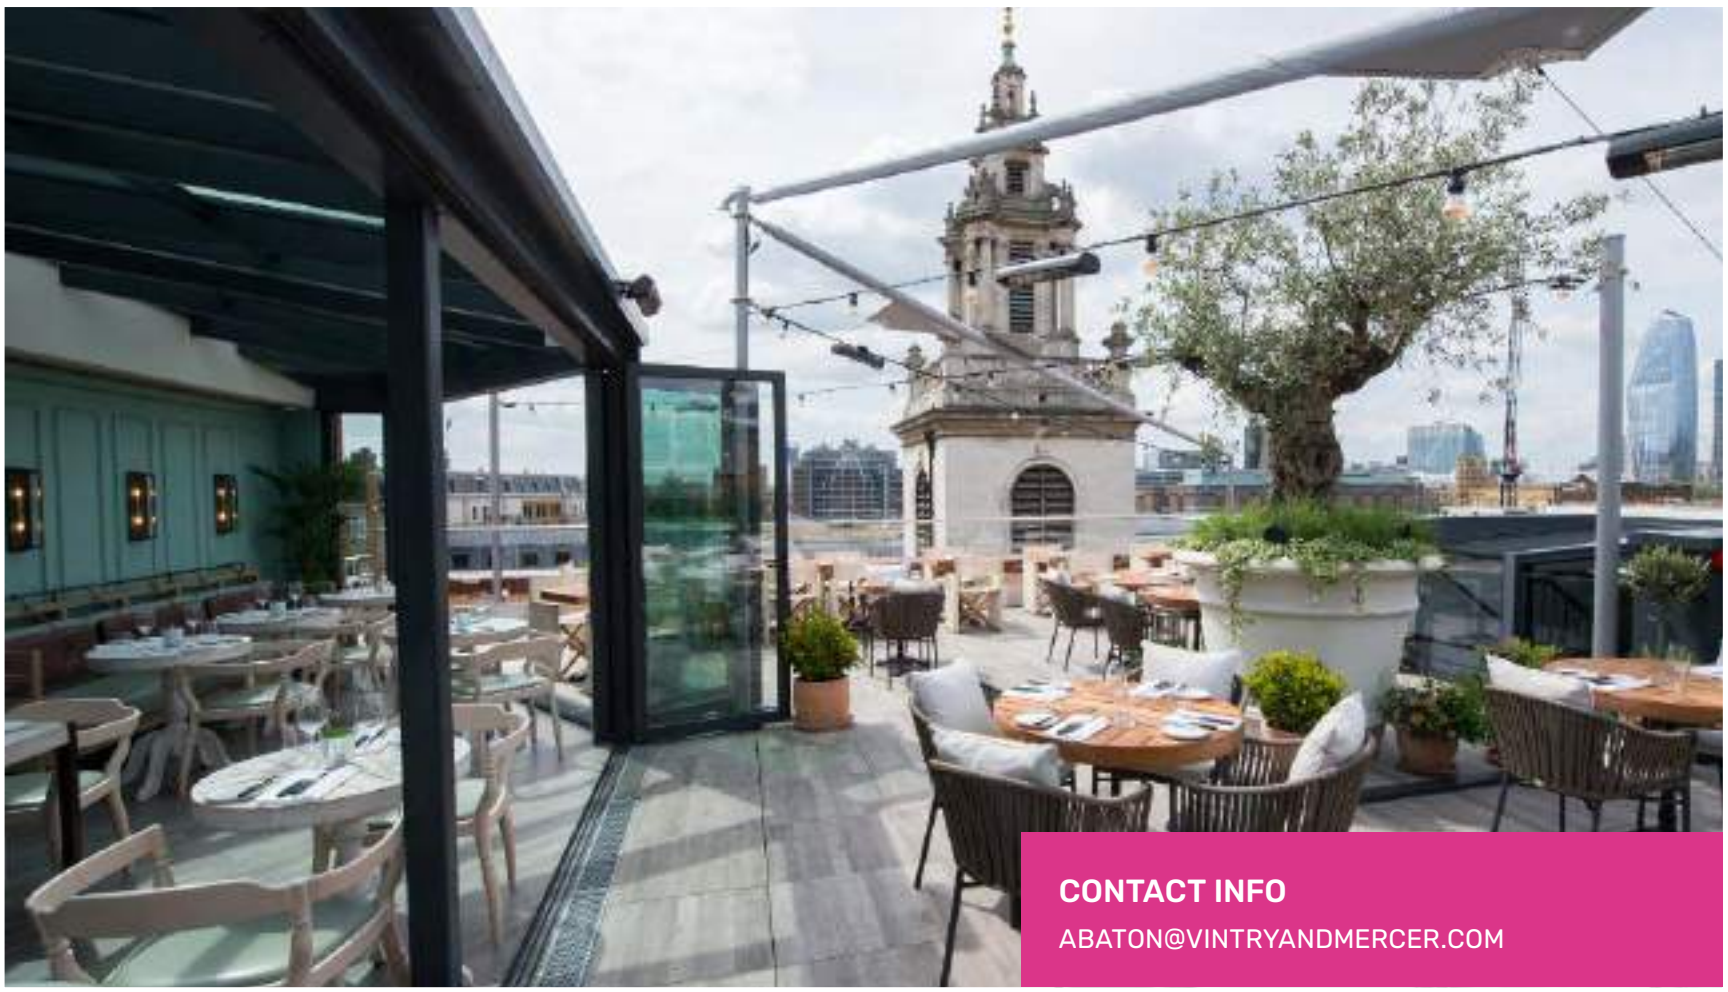

Here, London unfolds in cinematic fashion. St. Paul's Cathedral rises to one side, The Shard glitters on the horizon, and the rooftops of the City stretch in every direction.

Whether enjoying a leisurely breakfast, sunset cocktails, or the hotel›s elegant Crown Afternoon Tea, guests are treated to a perspective of London few visitors experience.

For travelers seeking a hotel with a genuine sense of place, Vintry & Mercer captures a side of London that feels both timeless and remarkably current, where centuries of history meet the energy of one of the world›s great modern cities.

THE FRANKLIN
LONDON

The Franklin London – Starhotels Collezione

Set within an elegant Victorian townhouse in the heart of Knightsbridge and overlooking the tranquil greenery of Egerton Gardens, The Franklin combines the intimacy of a private residence with the attentive service of a luxury boutique hotel. Just moments from Harrods and the Victoria & Albert Museum, it is also a distinctive expression of Anouska Hempel's timeless, Italian-influenced design.

The interiors reinterpret the glamour of a bygone era through a contemporary lens. Embroidered furnishings, Venetian stone floors, filigree silverware and sumptuous fabrics create a sophisticated atmosphere where the charm of an English townhouse meets subtle Eastern influences, resulting in a style that feels both opulent and effortlessly refined.

The Franklin's 35 rooms and suites are light-filled and individually furnished with meticulous attention to detail. Many overlook Knightsbridge or the verdant Egerton Gardens, while the Presidential Suite represents the ultimate expression of the hotel's distinctive character, combining understated luxury with a refined residential feel.

The experience continues at The Franklin Restaurant, where Head Chef Roberto Roncolato presents refined, Italian-inspired cuisine centred on carefully selected ingredients. The elegant Cocktail & Champagne Bar, with its glamorous 1920s-inspired atmosphere, provides an intimate setting for signature cocktails and sophisticated evenings in the heart of Knightsbridge.

Well-being is an integral part of the experience. The hotel features a private Hammam, fitness centre and treatment room, offering an intimate setting devoted to relaxation, while rich silks, fine cottons and thoughtfully considered details extend this sense of comfort throughout the guestrooms.

CASTILLE
PARIS

Castille Parigi – Starhotels Collezione

A refined five-star address with an unmistakable Italian soul, Castille Paris enjoys an exceptional location in the heart of the 1st arrondissement, just moments from the Louvre, the Opéra and Place Vendôme, and within easy reach of the Champs-Élysées and the Marais. Beyond its elegant façade, the hotel expresses a discreet sense of luxury through sophisticated interiors, soft colour palettes and an intimate atmosphere, creating a graceful home away from home in the very heart of Paris.

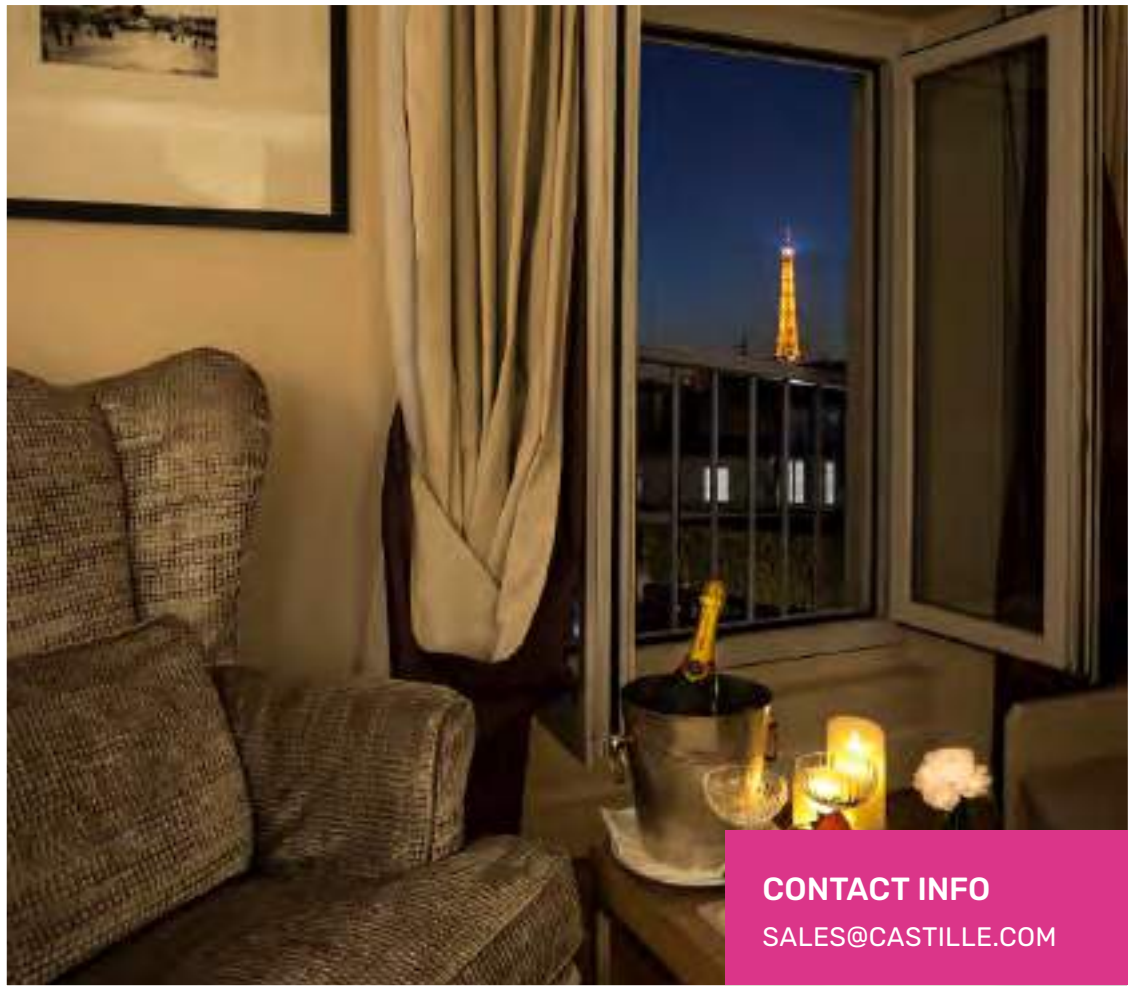

Set beside the legendary Maison Chanel and surrounded by the prestigious boutiques of rue Saint-Honoré, Castille Paris has a natural affinity with the world of fashion. Its privileged location has long made it a favoured address for designers, creatives and international travellers, particularly during Paris Fashion Week.

The rooms and suites are bright, elegant and individually appointed. Guests may choose between two distinctive styles: the Rivoli wing, inspired by the timeless sophistication of 1930s French interiors, and the Opéra wing, where a more contemporary aesthetic is enhanced by beautiful views over the Parisian rooftops. Throughout the hotel, carefully considered details and a distinctly residential feel shape spaces conceived for both relaxation and discovery.

Gastronomy lies at the heart of the Castille experience. At L'Assaggio, Executive Chef Marco Terenghi brings to life a menu conceived by Italian Michelin-starred Chef Ugo Alciati, blending the richness of Italian culinary tradition with a refined contemporary sensibility. During the warmer months, the restaurant extends into its enchanting courtyard, where delicate frescoes and lush greenery create an evocative setting for leisurely open-air dining in the heart of Paris.

Castille Paris also provides an elegant setting for private occasions, from intimate weddings to refined celebrations and special gatherings. L'Assaggio's light-filled dining rooms offer sophisticated indoor spaces, while the romantic courtyard, framed by greenery and distinctive Spanish frescoes, provides a secluded backdrop for memorable moments. With its central Parisian location, intimate character and distinctive Franco-Italian spirit, the hotel offers a setting in which every occasion feels considered, personal and effortlessly elegant.

GRAND HOTEL CONTINENTAL
SIENA

Grand Hotel Continental Siena – Starhotels Collezione

Once a noble private palazzo, Grand Hotel Continental is the only five-star hotel in Siena's historic centre, just moments from Piazza del Campo and the Duomo. Housed within a magnificent 16th-century residence, the hotel preserves the splendour of its past through original frescoes, Tuscan cotto floors, period chandeliers and richly detailed interiors.

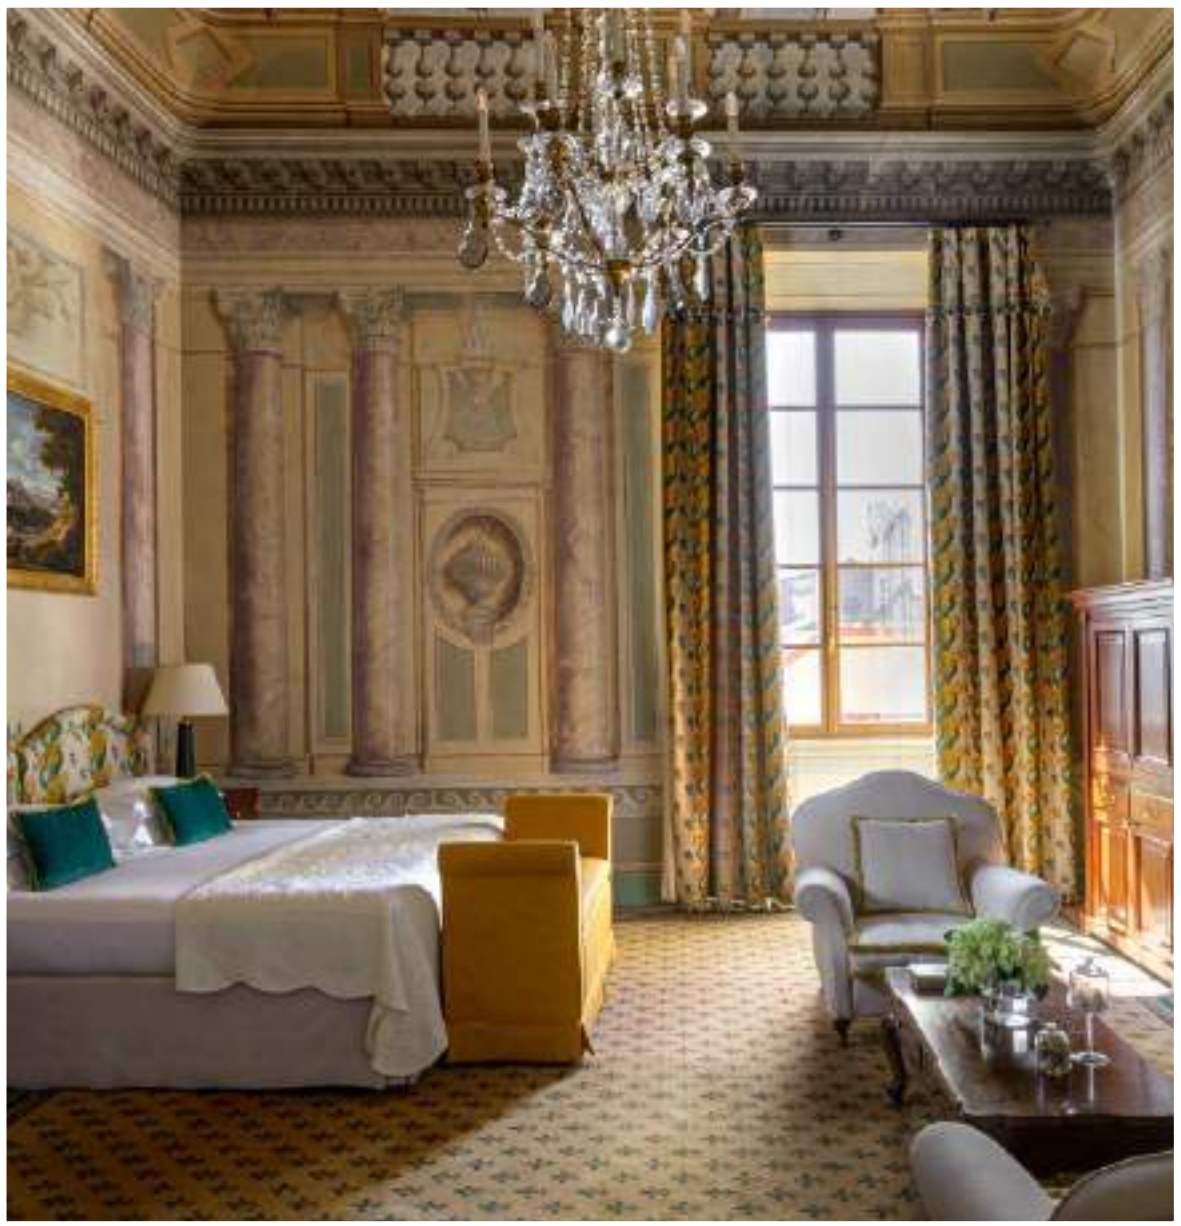

Its exceptional location makes it a privileged starting point from which to explore Siena and the timeless beauty of Tuscany, from Renaissance masterpieces and rolling landscapes to celebrated vineyards and historic wine estates. In July and August, guests can also immerse themselves in the unique atmosphere of Il Palio, Siena's legendary horse race held in Piazza del Campo, through a selection of exclusive experiences inspired by this centuries-old tradition.

A profound sense of history accompanies guests throughout the hotel. Many of the 51 rooms and suites feature original frescoed ceilings and period details, enriched by antique paintings, fine fabrics and elegant furnishings. Each space has its own distinctive identity, combining aristocratic charm with the comfort and refinement of contemporary hospitality.

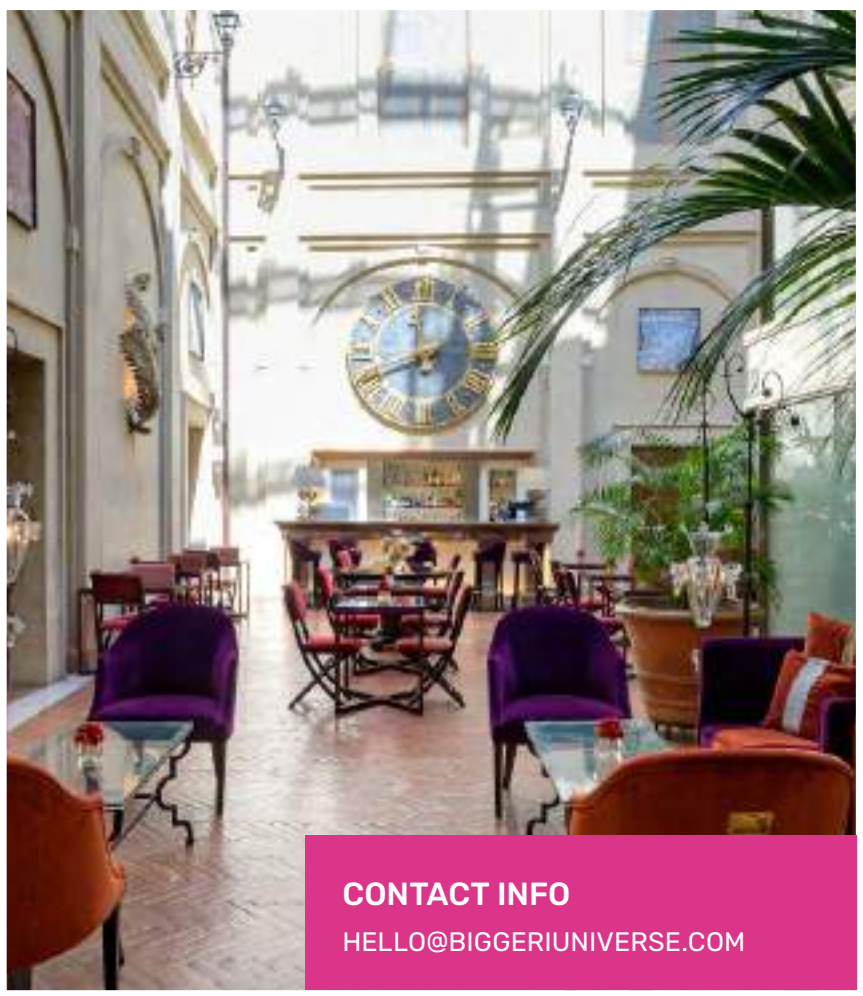

The hotel's heritage also finds expression in its culinary offering. At Sapordivino gourmet restaurant, the Lounge Bar by Sapordivino and the intimate Wine Cellar by Sapordivino, guests are invited on a journey through the flavours of Tuscany, with dishes rooted in regional traditions, carefully selected ingredients, fine wines and expertly crafted cocktails, all served in atmospheric and characterful surroundings.

For weddings, civil ceremonies and private celebrations, the Salone delle Feste provides a truly exceptional setting. With its original trompe-l'œil frescoes, richly veined marble floors and impressive proportions, this opulent space creates a memorable backdrop for elegant occasions in the heart of Siena.

FIRENZE

Helvetia & Bristol Firenze – Stahotels Collezione

Steeped in history and timeless elegance, Helvetia & Bristol has been welcoming guests since 1885, when Florence was among the most celebrated destinations of the Grand Tour. Today, the hotel brings together its storied heritage and contemporary refinement, enhanced by a recent expansion that introduced the Bristol Wing, with interiors by acclaimed designer Anouska Hempel, and one of the largest luxury spas in Florence's historic centre.

Across its 89 rooms and suites, the hotel celebrates Italian beauty, craftsmanship and artistry. The 64 rooms of the Helvetia Wing are defined by refined interiors, antique furnishings and carefully restored works of art, creating an atmosphere of discreet, enveloping elegance. In the Bristol Wing, 25 rooms and suites reinterpret the splendour of historic Florentine palaces through a sophisticated contemporary lens, combining rich textures, harmonious proportions and a distinctive sense of intimacy.

Gastronomy is an essential part of the Helvetia & Bristol experience. Each morning begins with an indulgent breakfast buffet featuring pastries, cakes, biscuits and freshly baked sweet and savoury croissants from Galleria Iginio Massari Firenze. Throughout the day, Cibrèo brings one of Florence's most renowned culinary names into the hotel, offering a vibrant expression of local food culture through its restaurant and bar.

Wellbeing takes centre stage at LA SPA Helvetia & Bristol, a 550-square-metre sanctuary inspired by the traditions of ancient Roman baths. Calidarium, tepidarium, sudatorium and frigidarium are complemented by two spectacular spa pools, creating an immersive journey designed to restore balance and harmony. Guided by the philosophy of mens sana in corpore sano, the spa offers a refined retreat where body, mind and spirit reconnect in the heart of Florence.

Hermitage Hotel & Resort Forte dei Marmi – Starhotels Collezione

Hermitage Hotel & Resort welcomes guests into an elegant retreat where contemporary design meets the natural beauty of Forte dei Marmi. Set within more than one hectare of private parkland, surrounded by pine trees and framed by views of the Apuan Alps, the hotel offers a bright and serene setting just moments from the beaches of Versilia.

Its 59 rooms and suites are conceived as refined, welcoming spaces where comfort and privacy come effortlessly. Soft tones inspired by the surrounding landscape, abundant natural light and carefully curated interiors create a relaxed sense of harmony, while private terraces and verandas open onto the gardens, strengthening the connection between indoor living and nature.

Dining is equally rooted in the spirit of the destination. At Orto all'Hermitage and Cabana Lounge Bar, local flavours and seasonal ingredients take centre stage, with produce from the hotel's organic garden bringing freshness and authenticity to the experience. From leisurely breakfasts in the greenhouse to sunset aperitifs by the pool, every moment reflects a relaxed and distinctly Tuscan approach to hospitality.

Within the gardens, Cabana Beach offers an exclusive interpretation of seaside living. A swimming pool with an eco-friendly purification system and hydromassage area is complemented by a sandy zone lined with Forte dei Marmi-style cabanas and surrounded by lush Mediterranean and tropical planting, including palms, banana trees and strelitzias. The result is an inviting haven devoted to relaxation and the effortless pleasure of dolce far niente.

Families are well catered for, with a spacious garden area dedicated to younger guests. A fully equipped playground with swings, table tennis and a sandpit allows children to enjoy the outdoors freely and safely, making the resort a relaxed and welcoming destination for guests of all ages.

TRIESTE

Savoia Excelsior Palace Trieste – Starhotels Collezione

The Savoia Excelsior Palace is a landmark of timeless elegance, embodying the grandeur and cosmopolitan spirit of Mitteleuropean Trieste. Since opening in 1911, when it was celebrated as one of the most prestigious hotels of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, it has welcomed aristocratic families, artists, diplomats and international travellers journeying across Europe, becoming an enduring symbol of the refinement and splendour of the great historic hotels.

Set on Trieste's seafront, just a short walk from the city centre, the hotel enjoys a privileged position overlooking the Gulf and close to many of the city's most iconic landmarks, including Miramare Castle. Behind its imposing white façade, monumental interiors evoke the grandeur of another era: a sweeping staircase, an impressive Belle Époque skylight, original Liberty and Empire furnishings, precious silks, sumptuous velvets and softly muted tones create an atmosphere of discreet sophistication.

The hotel's 144 rooms and suites have been thoughtfully restyled, combining classical elegance with refined contemporary details. Many enjoy sweeping views across the Gulf of Trieste, offering a serene and sophisticated retreat by the sea.

The restaurant completes the experience with creative cuisine inspired by local culinary traditions, complemented by an extensive selection of fine wines and exceptional views over the waterfront.

Nine bright and elegant meeting rooms, accommodating up to 320 guests, provide versatile settings for both private gatherings and business events, supported by the dedicated expertise of the hotel's Event Manager.

Guests can also enjoy a curated program of complimentary resort activities and tranquil oceanfront moments throughout their stay.

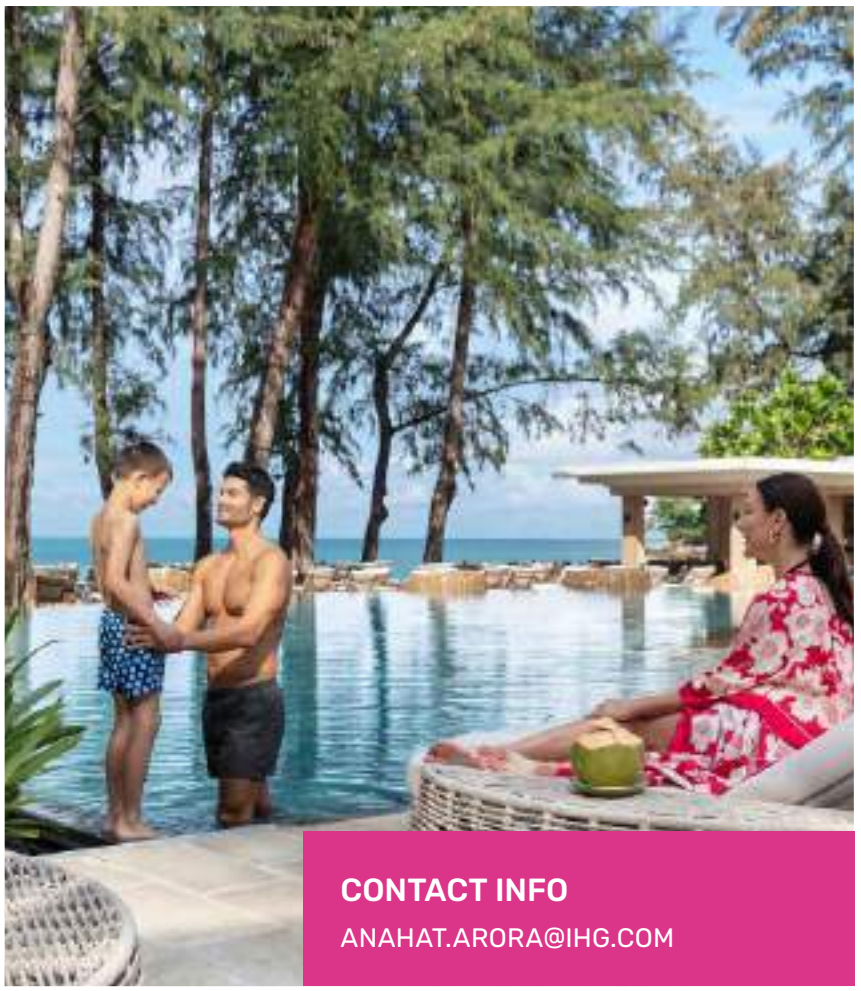

Inspired by Thai history and architecture, the resort's 221 rooms, suites, and villas offer contemporary luxury with warm tones, natural materials, and views of the ocean, pool, or mountains. Spread across the Kamala Mountain Wing and the Club InterContinental Beach Wing, accommodations range from classic rooms to private pool villas and beachfront suites, ideal for couples, families, and multi-generational travelers.

Designed by Habita Architects, the resort's architecture reflects the ancient Thai epic Traibhumikata, harmoniously connecting the realms of heaven, humanity, and the underwater world.

KIMPTON
BANGKOK

A charismatic, edgy hotel in Bangkok

Situated in a city of contrasts, Kimpton Maa-Lai Bangkok is in the center of all the social happenings. Surrounded by lush greenery and vibrant modernity, the urban retreat rests on the leafy-green Langsuan Road and offers convenient access to prime districts such as Sukhumvit, Silom, Siam and Chidlom, and serene views of the tranquil Lumphini Park – one of the city's largest green spaces. Charming and charismatic, Kimpton infuses Bangkok city's energy and creativity into its design and guest experience.

A Charismatic, edgy city-hotel beyond the ordinary in Bangkok, Thailand.

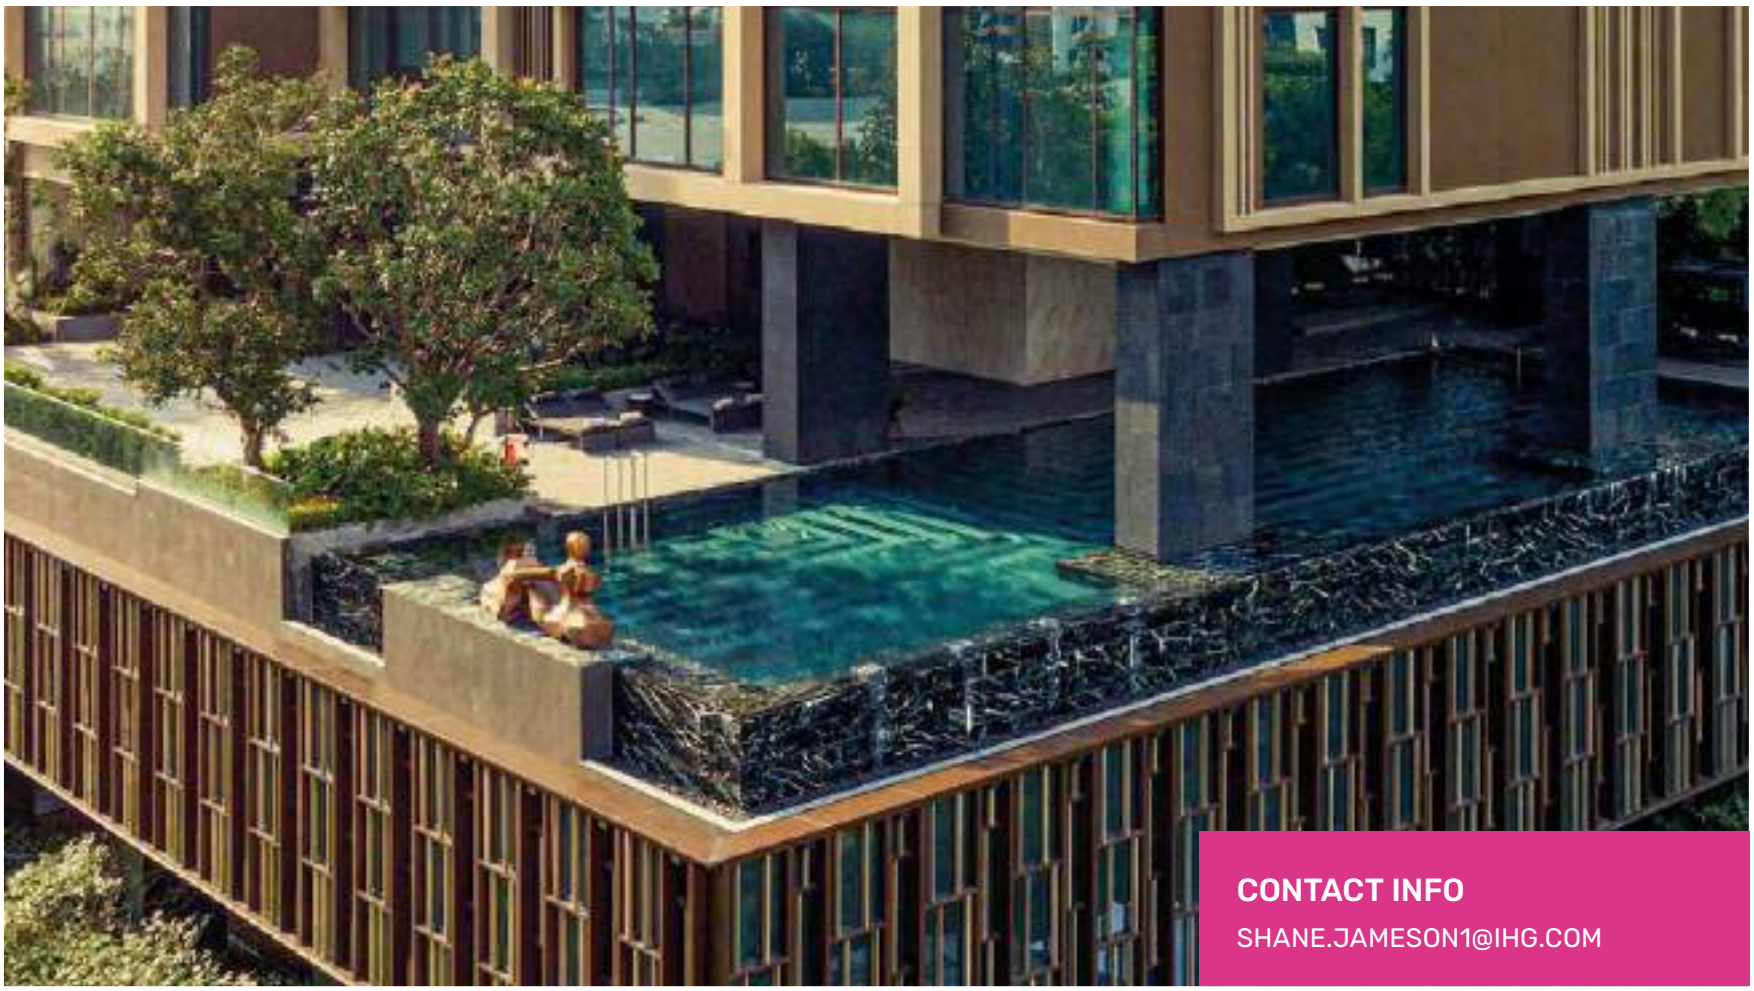

An insider's pass to the City of Angels, Kimpton Maa-Lai Bangkok channels the energy of Bangkok's vibrant pulse fusing raw, urban intensity with a light-hearted spirit and distinguished design. Each of the 362 hotel rooms, including 131 serviced residences, have everything you need and more for a good night's rest. A host of stylish facilities await you, with a pool that overlooks the lush Langsuan oasis and a luxurious spa that will ease your senses. It gets even better as we offer Kimpton's pet-friendly privileges and our hotel is located in Bangkok's city centre, where the city's top attractions are only a stone's throw away.

EAT+DRINK Globally inspired, locally loved.

Internationally inspired, Kimpton Mai-Lai Bangkok also brings what is locally loved to the table. Each of our four distinctive restaurants and bars is in pulse with the foodie-driven city that Bangkok is shaped today. Kimpton Maa-Lai Bangkok boasts four distinct and immersive dining venues. The hotel's lifestyle programming delivers memorable experiences; starting with a morning kickstart coffee and tea, to yoga lessons with breathtaking views from level 41 and Kimpton's Social Hour, where the brand's vision to enable human connection comes to life as guests mingle with locals.
