A Reminder About Government Rebates – they won't last forever!

For switching from gas to electric heating – up to $5,000 depending on the system.

For switching from an old and inefficient hot water service – up to $900.

For installing an induction cooktop – up to $140.

And for buying energy efficient TVs, dryers, fridges and freezers, $70 discount each.

There is also the federal government battery rebate: households and small businesses may be eligible for around a 30% discount on the upfront cost of installing a small-scale solar battery.

BRAG would like to offer the following items to any local NFP organisations who are keen to minimize their energy bills....

4 x Draft Stoppers to reduce heat loss through ceiling vents

2 x Valve Cozi to prevent heat loss through pipe valves on hot water services.

1 x Sealant to fill drafty cracks.

If you represent a local NFP organization and would like more information about how these items can be used contact BRAG by email bragbunyip@gmail.com .
