Execution Application under 71 Consumer Protection Act, 2019

Before: Shri Satpal, President.

Dr. Pawan Kumar Saini, Member.

Dr. Sushma Garg, Member.

Present: DH/Complainant in person.

Sh. Dixit Garg, Advocate, counsel for the JD/OP No.1.

Today the case is fixed for making compliance. The ld. counsel for the JD/OP No.1 by making a separate statement, stated that he has handed over the DD No.048132 amounting to Rs.48,292/- of Axis Bank Ltd, to the DH/complainant, namely, Raja Vikrant Sharma in pursuance to the order dated 29.12.2021 passed by this Commission and the matter is fully settled between the parties. Furthermore, he withdraws the miscellaneous application no. 03 of 2022, seeking the modification of the order and prayed that in view of the amount paid to the DH/complainant, the execution application no.02 of 2022 may be dismissed

The DH/complainant by making a separate statement stated that he has received the demand draft no.048132 of Axis Bank Ltd. dated 06.04.2022 amounting to Rs.48,292/- from the JD/OP No. 1 in lieu of full and final amount awarded by this Commission and now, nothing is due towards the JD/OP No.1 and thus, he withdraws the present execution application.

Heard. In view of the statement made by the ld. counsel for the JD/OP No.1 as well as DH/Complainant, the present execution application is hereby dismissed as withdrawn.

A copy of this order be sent to the parties, free of costs and File be consigned to the record room, after due compliance.
