

2021 Conference Agenda

*All times shown in Central Standard Time

TUESDAY, JULY 13

2:00pm - 3:05pm

Large Scale Event Operations: Lacey Probst, Julie Cribbs, & Megan Guy

Want to know the ins and outs of how large-scale operations happen for teams like the Arizona Cardinals, Dallas Cowboys, or LSU? The panel is here to give you an inside look at their venues and logistical operations.

3:15pm - 3:45pm

World Games: Scavenger Hunt

World Games is a staple of the CAOS tradition as we work in the industry of competition. First up is the scavenger hunt. Your entire team will have to find specific items as quickly as possible. The faster you are, the more points you can rack up.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14

1:00pm - 2:00pm

Ohio State Athletics' District: Mike Penner

Ohio State University is making headlines with their advances in athletic buildings designed to help student athletes succeed on their teams and in their everyday life. Find out the vision behind this massive capital project and some of the intricate details that have come up along the way.

2:15pm - 2:45pm

World Games: CAOS Feud

In the second leg of World Games, teams will face off in a CAOS branded version of Family Feud. Teams will need to work together to answer questions with a collegiate athletics flair. Every point matters in the race for the gold.

THURSDAY, JULY 15

1:00pm - 2:00pm

Breakout Room Table Topics

There's no better way to solve your event and facility problems than talking with your counterparts at other schools. How can you decrease ingress time at your stadium? How are other schools generating revenue with their special events? Is there a better way you can be credentialing your events? All these topics and more are being discussed in a smaller group setting.

2:15pm - 2:45pm

World Games: CAOS Jeopardy

Trivia is the name of the game in the final World Games event. Teams will be tasked with answering Jeopardy-like trivia questions. Correct answers win you points. Incorrect answers lose you points. Don't forget to answer in the form of a question!

8:00pm - 10:00pm

Happy Hour Bonfire

Kick back and relax with other attendees in a virtual happy hour.
