

Worship Leader Bio

Michael W. Tomlinson

Michael was born and raised on a farm in Logansport, Indiana to Bill and Carolyn Tomlinson where he attended and was a baptized member of Spring Creek Christian Church. His growing up years were spent leading worship, playing for the services at Spring Creek Christian Church and participate as a counselor, and song leader during the summer for Rainbow Christian Camp. He enjoys travelling and viewing God's great creation, fishing, being a beach bum, some golfing and bowling. He attended Lincoln Christian College for 2 years and then transferred to Anderson University and graduated with a BA degree in Church Music with emphasis in choral and orchestra conducting, piano, vocal, and church ministry. During his college years he had the opportunity to work with various Christian artist and did some studio work at Pine Brook Studios. Michael's first position out of college was at Highland Church of God where he was an Associate Pastor Minister of Music. Since then he has travelled the United States using his abilities and talents in various churches and organizations. He has performed with several symphonies and Choral Associations performing The Messiah and various works and Christian musical productions. As the years have progressed Michael has devoted and commit himself to the ministry of worship and music with the hope of drawing people closer to him and most of all taking the gospel to those who do not know Christ through worship and the studying of the word.

Important Security News

When exiting the Education Building please DO NOT use the right hand door to exit. There are multiple signs posted but people are still using the right hand door to leave. If you exit through this door the door will be unlocked all night. We want to protect what God has given us, so please use the left hand door to exit.

Thank You Notes

Thank you to the Worship Committee and all at FCC for your kind words and gifts. We will always remember our good friends and co-workers in the service of the Lord. God bless you all.
Kenny & Marilyn Jones

Thank you to everyone who helped decorate and de-decorate the church for Christmas. Your willingness to help was much appreciated.
