

A G.O.A.L. ORIENTED LIFESTYLE

Scripture Used Today: Romans 1:1-7; Isaiah 40:28-31; Galatians 1:15; 1st Corinthians 6:20; Luke 3:21-23

When you develop a GOAL-oriented lifestyle, you'll find yourself on the fast-track to success in the eyes of God. There are three reasons why.

1. Having a GOAL Defines Your Identity.
2. Having a GOAL Determines Your Influences.
3. Having a GOAL Drives Your Imagination.

Key Concepts:

You were created for a purpose. Finding that purpose, and living it out by day by day, is the difference between being a thriver or merely a _____.

Theme of Romans, is "everything you need to know about _____."

G.O.A.L. It stands for a _____.

Paul was influenced by something much greater: not just the idea of changing history, but the idea of _____.

If you want to excel in your God-ordained area of leadership, you must be influenced, first and foremost, by the _____.

What is your God-ordained area of leadership? _____