

I Wonder... How Can I Get Along Better With My Brothers and Sisters?

Read the Bible passages aloud. Then, answer the questions together. Be sure everyone has a chance to speak.

A hot-tempered person starts fights; a cool-tempered person stops them.
Proverbs 15:18, NLT

Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.
Ephesians 4:29, NLT

Again I say, don't get involved in foolish, ignorant arguments that only start fights. A servant of the Lord must not quarrel but must be kind to everyone, be able to teach, and be patient with difficult people.
2 Timothy 2:23-24, NLT

To Discuss:

- What does someone who is easily angered(hot tempered) do?
- What does someone who is calm and patient(cold-tempetered) do?
- How should you use your words?
- How can you use your words to help encourage someone today?
- What are some qualities of someone who is a servant of the Lord?
- Is it easy to be patient with others?
- Have you used your words to hurt instead of encourage?
- How does using hurtful words lead to frustration and pain?
- How can encouraging words be good for helping others?
- How has someone's words hurt you or helped you?
