

Jane Penfield is a well known pastel artist and teacher. She teaches a weekly online class in pastel and is a frequent workshop instructor and demo artist for many art groups. Her work evokes the constantly changing elements of the natural world as to the human influence on it. She currently serves as president of the Connecticut Pastel Society and is past president of Arts Center East in Vernon, Connecticut. Her professional associations include Pastel Society of America, New Haven Paint & Clay Club, Academic Artists Association, Pastel Painters Society of Cape Cod, and others.
