BROTHER THEODORE is the brainchild of Ted Gould III, a veteran musician whose career as a sideman includes working with NOLA Funk Music Legend Zigaboo Modeliste, Jon B., Prince Damons, and Pop icon Jody Watley.

With his debut as a bandleader, Ted has created an organic blend of Soul music with Funk, Rock, and Jazz influences. The album, St. Ann features the talents of some of the best New Orleans and Bay Area musicians with guest appearances by Prince alumni, Dr. Fink and Levi Seacer, Jr.

"The 504" is written and performed by New Orleans natives, Ted Gould III (Bro. Theodore) and Nate "Suave" Cameron, Jr. (Tank & The Bangas). The song features a world-class rhythm section, horns, gospel-style backing vocals and lyrics that pay homage to New Orleans. "The 504" is the perfect track for any of New Orleans' many celebrations, sporting events or tourism advertisements. "The 504" fits perfectly on any playlist with Dumpstphunk, The Meters, Jon Cleary, Trombone Shorty, Water Seed, and Brass-A-Holics.
