

They tell where you intend to go.
They tell where you've been.
They hint to me
Before you speak
If you might be a foe or a friend.
They protect your sole as you walk
Support your sole as you talk
Sole solely relying on them
The shoes you choose to don
Might look nice
But have nothing on
The Armor that you can't even see.
See
It tells where you intend to go.
It tells where you've been.
It hints to me
Before you speak
If you might be a foe or a friend.
It protects your soul as you walk
Supports your soul as you talk
Soul solely relying

On Them.
