

“Under the Mulberry Tree” DRUM Circle

Natural Science with Divine Intervention- The world is a large music box

Located in the heart of Shreveport in the historic Ledbetter Heights neighborhood this space shares the east west Ley Line with the Municipal Auditorium. The rejuvenating greenery and natural terrain serves as the perfect backdrop for one to align spiritually with their self and connect with their spirit through this artistic experience. In 1997, Big Wise Daddy, a local Holy man (Knows all, Sees all and Says nothing) anointed and blessed Ron Hardy as a Bishop in the Order of Melchizedek in front of this Mulberry tree.

To begin each session Ron Hardy will conduct a short informal Drum Circle. This relaxed natural atmosphere along with the fresh pure blessed oxygen under the “Mulberry Tree” inspires the non-verbal communication through the rhythms of the drums and percussion instruments. The vast array of local birds may also join in the session as well. The oneness, unification and vibrations that occur amongst the individuals present will inspire the topics of an open conversation/discussion/dialog. This space is a testament of how man and nature can co-exist together in forming a natural Holy sanctuary. No one will leave the same as before they arrived.

(2 Samuel 5:23,24) 23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. 24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

We all have our own personal internal and external battles that we face in our daily life. Connecting one’s spiritual self with nature along with finding one’s rhythmic and vibrational flow are the keys to unlocking and finding “On earth as it is in Heaven.” Mankind and nature are fundamentally one.
