

I want to be...

By Nneoma Prudence LaMarche

I want to be good for you
Like your favorite food.
Making you to be strong
Helping to improve your mood.
Sweet like honey to the taste
But healthy like soup for the soul.
Expensive on the pockets
Something like liquid gold.

I want to be the one for you
Like the parents you could not choose.
Ordained by Almighty God
Giving the love you cannot refuse.
Singing sweet words of love
When you are feeling despair.
Heavy handed on the encouragement
Just so that you will know that I care.

I want to be right for you
Like your faith in Allah.
Never leading you astray
Always helping you go far.
Speaking wise words
like the Qur'an and ahadith.
Listening to your problems
Providing you comfort and relief.

I want to be true to you
Like you are to yourself.
Doing what the righteous do
Even when there seems to be no good left.
Happy with what you do
Shining brightly like the sun.
Sharing my life with you
Because I know you are the one.
