

Bio

Sarah Duet is an interdisciplinary artist and writer. Exploring who we are, how we're connected, and why it matters persists in her work across mediums. Often combining visual and literary elements, she invites viewers into quiet reflection and personal discovery through layers of meaning, texture, and minimal palettes. Feeling a resonance with their own experience, people can remember they are not alone.

Contact

✉ sarah@sarahduet.com

☎ 985.856.2403

📍 Shreveport, LA

🌐 sarahduet.com

SARAH DUET

ARTIST & WRITER

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, 2011

Communication: New Media, Cum Laude
Centenary College of Louisiana

BOOK

What Happened is Happening

Poems, March 2022

EXHIBITIONS

Refractions, 2022

Abingdon Press; RAW the studio.

What Happened is Happening, 2022

Meadows Museum of Art

The Pattern Happening, 2021

Asbury United Methodist Church

Rotating works, 2011-2016

The Yellow House of Highland

PUBLICATIONS

Enneagram Magazine, 2021

Pandora Art & Lit. Magazine, 2020

Arthouse America, 2013 & 2015

Heliopolis: Artist Profile, 2014

Point of Vue Magazine, 2013

TEACHING

Make Things & Share Them

P.E.O. International Chapter, 2022 & 2023

How to Make Blackout Poetry

Captain Shreve High School, 2020-2021

Enneagram & Creativity, 2019

Pfeiffer University; Great Raft Brewing Co.

He(art) Matters, 2017

Noel Memorial United Methodist Church

Made to Make, 2017

Clearview Church

Art & Social Justice Series, 2016

Noel Community Arts Program

MARKETS

Holiday Makers Market, 2017 & 2018

Meadows Museum of Art

Art in the Meadow, 2018

Meadows Museum of Art