

Peace Be Still

When my storms are raging out of control because I'm out of control

Peace Be still

When the mess I got myself into. Provided me a way in but no way out.

Peace Be Still

When depression is lurking

Peace Be Still

When my mind is racing

And my feet are pacing.

Peace Be Still

Every time I throw in the towel

Because I'm all cried out

PEACE BE STILL

When I want to seek revenge

Peace be Still

When rumors are chasing me

And stones are thrown at me

Peace Be still

So I can catch you

Peace Be still

when you be still

And know it's all God's WILL
