- Promote your session: Our plan is to publish the full schedule early next week so people can start to sign up for sessions. There will be 7-10 concurrent seed sessions and field trips in each of our 18 blocks of content across the week. We are counting on you to promote your session widely among your networks to help fill it up. Think about who you would like to participate, let them know about it, and encourage them to attend.

Here are some tools to do this:

- #tnocfestival
- Direct invitations
- Registration link: <https://cvent.me/bO1nm5>
 - Remember, you can let your networks know that TNOC Festival has always supported free entry to promote inclusivity and reduce barriers for anyone who may want to join us. We kindly ask, if people can pay, we hope they will. If they cannot, they are most welcome to join us anyway! Have them send a message to: tnoc-festival-gratis@thenatureofcities.com
- Website: www.tnoc-festival.com
- To promote on LinkedIn tag M'Lisa Colbert and David Maddox of The Nature of Cities and we will re-share your posts
- To promote on Instagram tag the_nature_of_cities
- To promote on Twitter tag @tnatureofcities
