

Dr. Stephania Sciamano: The Riddle the Embodiment of the Independent

Dr Stephania Sciamano is an Energy Surgeon devoted to Truth and Embodiment of Your Rich Genius. She spent 9 years in private natural medicine practice before working exclusively with ambitious men and women to increase wealth, vitality, and energy in all its forms. Learn how ambitious and independent women can open themselves in order to stand powerfully side-by-side with men, in a way that doesn't burn out their body.

TOP EMBODIMENT TIP: Come to the heart, come to the sex and let them connect just with your mind.

Problem: A Woman's Suppressed Femininity is the Leading Cause of Burnout.

- For women, it can feel unsafe to be at the receiving end of masculine penetrative energy because of the generations of personal and collective trauma from non-consensual dominance of women.
- Our world is wired for speed, high impact, high adrenaline and for yang energy.
- Mistake number one women make: Trying to make men obsolete; doing everything on their own.
- Money holds a very masculine energy because money is a great provider. It can also be a protector.
- Women who avoid receiving masculine energy tend to also have problems in relationship with money.
- With overfunctioning, women destroy the nourishing energy polarity inside themselves.

Solution: Starting a Legendary Love Affair with the Masculine Divine.

- De-armor and open the heart and body. Women have the deep desire to let go and be held.
- We need our bodies to come into more of a yin feminine energy frequency for things like longevity.
- Women need to feel supported by men, and God. It's about allowing the nervous system to relax.
- Welcome the masculine divine and therefore men and money into your heart as a woman.

Path: Honor Your Body and Let the Masculine and Feminine Energy Inside You Flow.

- Reminder: Your body must come with you on your next massive expansion, whatever it is.
- Make time for more fun in your life. Live in a way that creates and keeps your body vibrant and healthy.
- Your heart has a desire. The world needs your art and medicine coming from your de-armored heart.
- With rituals that light up the sex, heart and brain together, a woman is just like "I'm fire".
