Sholom u'Brocho:

I have received your letter of 21st of Menachem Av, in which you ask my opinion regarding the Shidduch proposed for your son Aron Dov with a young lady from Dublin, who had studied at the Gateshead Seminary, is a Yiras Shomaim, etc.

In my opinion, if the difference in age is not great, it would be advisable to pursue the matter, especially, inasmuch as you write that you think there is mutual liking on the parts of both your son and the girl and they are in favor of following the matter up.

With reference to your , I would suggest that you approach good Shadchonim and request them energetically to look for a suitable match for her, and from time to time further remind them about it. This would offer the 'natural' channel through which the Almighty makes a suitable Zivug, materially and spiritually.

Although you do not mention it, I trust you are keeping up your appointed Shiurim in Chassiduth and Nigle, and may the Almighty help you to have good news to report.

With the blessing of Kesivo vachasimo toivo,

Cordially

M. Schneerson
