Dear Mr. and Greet

I have received your letters of November 5th and 19th. I have repeatedly told you that you do not have to apologise for writing to me. On the contrary, your letters, though by no means cheerful, are preferable to silence which would mean nothing.

I wonder why you do not mention anything about the various undertakings which had engaged your attention of late. As I wrote you before, it seems to me that ~~in this direction on the~~ you should devote considerable attention to more modest projects with more immediate prospects of realization.

I am sure that you will be rehabilitated eventually,
but this is no reason for 14-00000-1 loss of income.

used is a loan from our Free Loan Fund, which I
you and yours to use in good health.

With kindest regards,

Cordially yours,
