Sholom u'brocho:

I have received your letter of 13th Cheshvan, of your arrival in Munchen.

I want to call your attention to the fact there is in that city a Vaad Horabonim, at the head of which is Rabbi Snieg, a Lubavitcher chossid.

You will surely want to visit him, and when you do, please give him my regards and also the enclosed kuntres. On his part, I am sure, he will do all he can to help you in every way possible.

For you, I am sending herewith the pocket booklet on Chanukah and the booklet on the history of Yud-Tes (19th) Kislev. I trust you will make good use of both.

With regards to your friends, and best wishes for a good month of Kislev, the Month of Geuloh, and a good thereafter,

Cordially yours
