Greeting and Blessing:

I have received your letter of Tishrei 7, in which you write that you visited the Ohel, with members of your family. I was gratified to read this, inasmuch as it shows that you appreciate the words of our Sages, 'The Righteous even after death are considered alive,' since all their life on this earth they are united with the 'Living Torah' and 'Living G-d,' eternal beings which give them eternity, too.

One of the forms of this eternity of the Righteous is that their disciples and followers walk along the path which the Righteous have shown them, and participate in the institutions and work which the Righteous have founded and guided.

As for your remarks that you want so much to go in the ways of G-d, but find many limitations and roadblocks, etc., I would like to tell you what my father-in-law of sainted memory said, namely, that when a Jew decides on a good resolution, it is immediately decided in Heaven to give him the ability to carry out his good resolution in practical life. This is so all year round, and especially during the month of Tishrei, and even more so during the Ten Days of Teshuvah. I trust therefore that you will be able to translate your good resolutions into deeds.

Please convey my prayerful wishes for a Chasimo uGmar Chasimo Toivo to your mother and entire family, including yourself, of course.

With blessing
