Greeting and Blessing:

I received your letter of the 19th of Teveth, and, as requested, I will remember all those mentioned in your letter in prayer when visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory. I hope to hear good news from you about them.

You write that when you get an opportunity, you learn a little Chassidus. I hope that this means that you are also trying to create opportunities, even though you may be pressed for time. For, in this connection, too, the Mishna applies כל המקיים את התורה מעוני (בזמן) סומו לקיימה מעושר (בזמן) so that the "little" Chassidus will become a lot of Chassidus.

In connection with the condition of your wife, may G-d grant that she have a normal pregnancy and at the right time give birth to a healthy offspring in a happy and auspicious hour.

With blessing M. Schneerson
