Blessing and Greeting:

I received your letter of November 11th, and was pleased to read in it that you are active, and apparently also gratified with the results. I am also glad to note that you are especially pleased with your children, and may G-d grant that you always have good news to report of a steady improvement in every phase.

With regard to your personal problem, and your hesitation because of the responsibilities and obligations that would be involved, I am confident that with G-d's help you could readily meet such responsibilities and obligations, knowing how well you succeeded in the past. If you will make up your mind that the prospect is good for you, this in itself would hasten it's solution.

I wish you a happy and inspiring Chanukah, and may it bring increased light in your personal life, and in the Nachas from your children, as is symbolized by the ever-growing number of candles which are kindled throughout Chanukah.

With blessing m. Schneerson
