Greeting and Blessing:

I received your letter, in which you write about the plans concerning the financial situation of the Beth Rivkah, etc. When visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory at an auspicious hour, I will remember the Beth Rivkah in prayer that the plans succeed, so that the Beth Rivkah could be established on a firm financial footing. All the more so since my father-in-law of saintly memory was the Founder of the Beth Rivkah schools.

I hope you will have good news to report about the success of the preparations for the Annual Dinner, and about the actual success of the Dinner itself. This year is especially auspicious since it is the 200th anniversary of the Baal Sehm Tov's hilstakus, and it is well-known that his first efforts were in the field of education of very small Jewish children.
