Blessing and Greeting:

I received your letter, in which you write about the improvement in health and also about the celebration of Chanukas Habayis, Yud Tes Kislev, and the Bris. May G-d grant that you will always have good and happy news to report in all matters, both personal and Klal, with true joy and gladness of heart.

I want to take this opportunity to share with you a happy item, namely, that at last night's Annual Dinner of the Lubavitcher Yeshiva, Rabbi Lookstein spoke of his visit to Milan and how impressed he was with the Lubavitch activities there. His address was one of the highlights of the Dinner and made a very favorable impression. I hope you will convey this also to your husband and to Rabbi Lazar, who will undoubtedly write to me more fully about Rabbi Lookstein's visit.

I will again remember you and all the members of your family in prayer, when visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory, in accordance with the contents of your letter.

Hoping to hear good news from you,

With blessing,

By W. Mindel
