Greeting and Blessing:

I was pleased to receive your letter enclosing a donation, to which you have all jointly contributed. It is gratifying to note that you are conscious of the needs of those who are less fortunate than you, and are helping them in a practical way. The Mitzvah of Tzedoko is, of course, one of the greatest, and it will surely stand each and every one of you in good stead to be blessed of G-d, materially and spiritually.

Now that the summer has started, I hope that you realize that there can be no interruption or vacation in all matters of Torah and Mitzvoth. On the contrary, when Jewish children are free from the distraction of secular studies and other school work, it gives them an opportunity to devote more time to the study of the Torah and the observance of the Mitzvoth. I hope you will take the fullest advantage of this opportunity, both for your own benefit, as well as to be a good influence on others.

Wishing you a healthy and successful summer in body as well as in soul,

With blessing,

By Avraham Schneerson
