Sholom uBrocho:

I was pleased to receive your regard through your son ~~Avrohom~~ Avrohom on his return. I was particularly gratified, of course, to learn how well he has used his visit, and of the Nachas that he has given you. I asked Avrohom if his mother also attended his public speeches, and he replied in the affirmative, adding that she is a "severe critic," yet she was satisfied. I further understood from him, despite his modesty, that Rabbi Golditsch was also satisfied with his talk with Avrohom in learning.

May G-d grant that you will always have Nachas from him as well as from your daughter, and will have good news to report about all your affairs, both personal and public, including a substantial improvement in Parnosso.

With blessing,

Just received your letter of 5/2. May it be a forerunner of more like that to come.
