Blessing and Greeting:

I was pleased to receive your letter through your brother, who also filled in further information about your personal progress in knowledge of Yiddishkeit, and of your efforts to spread this knowledge in your environment. I was, of course, also very pleased to learn of your efforts in behalf of the Lubavitch House in London, which is a cause of the highest order. I trust your friends will follow your example in all these activities, and will be a real help to you ~~in~~ achieving the utmost results.

Enclosed is a copy of my Pesach message, which I trust you will use to good advantage.

Wishing you success in all your undertakings, in good health, joy and true freedom,

With blessing, m. Schneerson
