Blessing and Greeting:

Your prolonged silence surprises me a great deal, especially as you surely understand that one begins to wonder why there has been no word from you, all the more so in view of your last letter in which you wrote about your daughter's health.

Mr. Zippel visited me recently, but I did not, of course, want to ask him details of a personal nature. We only discussed the institutions.

I hope to hear good news from you soon, especially at this time before the Hilulo of my father-in-law of saintly memory, whose blessings your parents have frequently received, and blessings to parents include blessings to children. The words of Tzaddikim are everlasting and a source of continued blessings.

With blessing
