Blessing and Greeting:

I received your letter which you concluded on the 4th day of Shevat enclosing photograph of your children. I will remember you all in prayer when visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory.

I trust that you have received my previous letter, and I will therefore not repeat my expression of surprise at the long intervals between your letters, especially as this was not intended as a mere criticism, but rather as a suggestion for rectifying it in the future. May G-d grant that your letters will always contain good news in every respect.

With blessing

By Avraham Shurkin
