Blessing and Greeting:

I was pleased to receive your letter, in which you write about the Mlava Malka which you had in your home, and which are held at regular intervals in different homes.

May G-d fulfil your hearts' desire to make your home a Beis vaad lachachomim, etc., as you write, full of light and warmth which should spread outside and all around.

With blessing,

BY Menachem Schneerson

I trust that during the summer also, even if some of the couples have gone to the country, there will be a continuation of the good activities to spread Yiddishkeit, in a suitable way.
