Dear Mendel David,

In reply to your letter of Kislev 23, I wish to thank you for your interest in obtaining for us the various manuscripts mentioned in your letter.

manuscripts or the However, I am writing to tell you not to purchase any of the books you mention, and similar propositions that may come up in the future, since many of the books are already in our possession, or new arrivals of books complement what we already have.

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely,

Rabbi M. A. Hodakov
