Mr. Chaim Yehuda Jacobs
Kfar Chabad

Greeting and Blessing:

I duly received your two recent letters, and I was pleased to read about your progress in your studies, and your good influence on your friends. Since our Sages, of blessed memory, say that he who intercedes for his friend is himself helped first, may G-d grant that your good efforts in behalf of others will bring you an additional measure of success in your studies of both Nigleh and Chassidus, the kind of learning that prompts action, as the essential thing is the deed and the daily conduct.

As we have entered the happy month of Adar, and will soon celebrate the miracle of Purim, I send you my prayerful wishes for a happy and truly inspiring Purim, when there was "light and joy and gladness and honor" for the Jews, as the Megillah states, in the plain sense of these words, as well as their inner meaning, as explained by our Sages, namely "light, this means Torah, etc."

With blessing
