Blessing and Greeting:

At this time, before Rosh Hashanah, I send you my prayerful wishes for a good and happy new year.

Following our meeting and conversation, when we discussed at length the importance of the spreading of the Torah and Jewish way of life, I trust that you have reflected on this matter, and given it the attention it deserves. May G-d grant that you should make the proper resolutions, for everyone of us, in the midst of all our people, desires the well being of our Jewish brethren, and all humanity in general.

With the blessing of Kesivo VaChasimo
Toivo

M. Schneerson
