Greeting and Blessing:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your recent letter, as well as your two previous ones. תודה רבה

I will again remember you in prayer, when visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory, in accordance with the contents of your letter, and may G-d grant that you should at last be able to settle down in a way that is truly good for you in every respect, so that also your parents should be pleased, and have true Nachas from you. I mean, of course, to include also matters of Parnosso and a good Shidduch.

I trust that the proper preparations are being made for the observance of Yud Shevat, and may the inspiration of this day be with you and all participants throughout the year.

Enclosed is a general letter, which I trust will be of interest to you, although it was originally sent to students in the Holy Land.

With blessing

By Isaac Rindel
