Blessing and Greeting:

I duly received your letter and enclosure, but owing to the intervening Yomim Tovim, etc., it was not convenient to reply to your letter sooner.

You write about a dream, and ask my advice.

Generally speaking, in our generations, one should not attach too much importance to dreams. In your case, especially, inasmuch as since your dream we have had many times Birkas Kohanim during the festivals of Tishrei, and the Birkas Kohanim includes a special prayer that all dreams should be turned to good and blessing, you certainly have nothing to be anxious about.

Furthermore you and your husband have the additional Zechus of bringing up your children in the way of the Torah and Mitzvoth, and of spreading ~~the~~ Yiddishkeit in your community. The latter is a unique privilege, in view of the fact that Miami Beach is a community which is visited by Jews from all parts of the States, and often also from other countries. Thus the benefits which such visitors derive from your efforts to encourage and strengthen Yiddishkeit are not only confined to the visitors themselves, but are taken along with them to their communities in other cities and countries.

Incidentally, this further illustrates how far reaching can be the influence of a single individual, man or woman, if one utilizes one's potential to the full. This is also one of the central points of my message for Rosh Hashonah of this year, a copy of which is enclosed, although you may have already had occasion to see it.

Receipt is enclosed for your Tzedoko, and may it further stand you in good stead.

With blessing

By
