Greeting and Blessing:

I received your letter, in which you write about the opening of a new Law office. May G-d grant that the change of address will bring about a change for the good, both in business as in all your affairs, materially and spiritually, which go hand in hand together.

No doubt you know of the history of the 19th of Kislev, which we observed yesterday. It is indeed an auspicious day, as also the coming days of Chanukah, which make the whole month of Kislev a good and bright month for Jews. May it bring an increased measure of brightness in all your affairs.

With blessing m. Schneerson
