Greeting and Blessing:

I am in receipt of your letter, written on the last day of Chanukah.

As requested, I will remember you and your wife in prayer, and may G-d grant that you should have good news to report.

Having just celebrated Chanukah, I trust that you have derived lasting inspiration from it, especially the need to spread the light of the Torah and Mitzvoth in a growing measure, as indicated by the Chanukah lights, which are kindled in growing numbers each night of Chanukah. This will also bring you and yours a growing measure of Divine blessings.

Hoping to meet you at future happy gatherings, and looking forward to receiving good news from you

With blessing
