Blessing and Greeting:

I am in receipt of your letter of Jan. 17, in which you write about your background, etc.

As requested, I will remember you and yours in prayer, for the fulfillment of your heart's desire for good, in the matters which you mention.

The strengthening of the daily life according to the Torah, which is called Toras Chayim (the Torah of Life), and the Mitzvoth, whereby Jews live, which is a must for its own sake for every member of the family, will also bring you and yours additional Divine blessings in all your needs.

May G-d grant that you should have good news to report.

With blessing

P. S. With reference to your husband's attitude towards religious matters - experience has shown that a persistent effort is effective. If you will talk to him, again and again, but in a friendly manner, you would accomplish a great deal, especially in view of what you wrote that you have noted many improvements in him already.
