Blessing and Greetings:

I duly received your letter of October 4th. As requested, I will again remember you in prayer for the fulfillment of your heart's desires for good.

The essence of a Jew is his trust in G-d, and his keeping open the channels which connect him with G-d, namely the fulfillment of the Torah and Mitzvoth. I believe I already wrote to you before that while the fulfillment of the Mitzvoth in the daily life, as well as trust in G-d in general, are a must for their own sake, they are also the channels through which G-d sends His blessings.

We have now entered the auspicious month of Kislev, and soon will celebrate the festival of Chanukah by lighting the candles. It is inspiring to think that Chanukah symbolizes the steady growing of light, since we begin with one candle and increase the number every night. May it be so in every aspect of your life, materially and spiritually.

With blessing
