Greeting and Blessing:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 29th of Kislev.

I will again remember in prayer those mentioned in your letter, each one according to one's needs.

May G-d grant that, inasmuch as you already wrote some good news in this letter, you should have further good news to report, especially as your letter was written during the auspicious days of Chanukah, which is celebrated by kindling the lights of Chanukah in a growing measure. May there likewise be a growing brightness in all your affairs, materially and spiritually.

With blessing M. Schneerson
