Blessing and Greeting:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th of Tammuz.

It is surely unnecessary to emphasize that whenever I write to your husband with special blessings on various occasions, particularly in connection with the Yomim Noroyim and other festivals, you, the Akeres Habayis and helpmate, are of course included.

You surely know of the history and significance of the 12-13th of Tammuz which we are about to observe, and may the inspiration and influence of this auspicious day be with you and all yours throughout the year.

With blessing,

By Avraham Shindler

P.S. Regarding the question as to the direction in which to influence Miss R.B. - you should
