Greeting and Blessing:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 3rd of Marcheshvan, as well as your previous correspondence. As requested, I will remember you and yours in prayer, when visiting the holy resting place of my father-in-law of saintly memory, for the fulfillment of your hearts' desires for good in all the matters about which you write. May G-d grant that you should have good news to report.

Especially as we have now come from the month of Tishrei, the month which is sated with festivals and with a complete variety of deep religious experiences, culminating in a most joyous note, that of Simchas Torah. As explained in our holy sources, the month of Tishrei is a "general" month, the epitome of the whole year, and the source of inspiration and blessing for every day of the year. May G-d grant that it should be so for you, and that all your affairs should be permeated with true joy, the joy of the Torah and Mitzvot.

With blessing
