Blessing and Greeting:

I received your letter of the 18th of Kislev.
As requested, I will remember you in prayer for the fulfillment of your heart's desires for good in the matters about which you write.

It is surely unnecessary to add that in all the good wishes extended to your husband, you and the children are, of course, also included.

I trust that you are continuing your activities in cooperation with the Neshei Chabad, especially as there is even a greater need for this now in connection with the new building and extended programs. The housewife is, of course, limited as far as outside activities are concerned.
Nevertheless, within the available possibilities, a great deal can be accomplished with good will and determination.

With blessing,

By Amram Shalev
