Dear Dr. Greene,

In response to your letter of February 25 concerning your hoped for visit to Eretz Israel, the Rebbe א"מ"ל"ו replied that you should go with your wife, and leave the children in school in London if it is possible to make good arrangements for their care, food and lodging etc., in London. If this is difficult then you should go with the whole family.

The Rebbe א"מ"ל"ו also said that in any case you should try to stay in Eretz Israel for as long as possible.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Rabbi M.A. Hodakov
