Greeting and Blessing:

I duly received your telegram about the concert. I am sure you will not withhold good news about the developments.

The main point of this letter is to express my confident hope that all the necessary preparation, are being made to observe Yud-Tes Kislev, and may G-d grant that it should be with much Hatzlecho, especially as these praverful wishes are expressed on the 10th of Kislev, the Seulo of the Mittler Rebbe.

2) I trust you will not take amiss my following remarks. I have just bidden farewell to your sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. , on the eve of their return to Eretz Yisroel. In connection with their frame of mind, about which there is no need to elaborate to you, it would be very good if you and your brothers would make the trip to be present at the wedding. This would be of great moral help to your sister and brother-in-law. Incidentally, it would also give you an opportunity to visit our Chabad institutions, and get acquainted with Chabad activities there at first hand.

To conclude on a happy note, I extend to you my sincere wishes of Mazel Tov, Mazel Tov, on the occasion of the marriage of your niece, Miss Unschorfer, and also on the forthcoming marriage of your nephew Goldfield in Eretz Yisroel.

May you always have good news to report.

With blessing for Chag HaSeulo
and a bright and inspiring
Chanukah
M. Schneerson
