Greeting and Blessing:

I was pleased to receive your letter, in which you write about your Torah studies.

May G-d grant the fulfillment of your heart's desires for good, to have Hatzlocho in your learning, and to be a true Torah-observing and G-d-fearing Jew. Surely you know of the promise of our Sages of blessed memory, "Try hard, and you will succeed." Therefore, if you will apply yourself to your learning with devotion and diligence, and try to be worthy of being a son of our Fathers Avrohom, Yitzchak and Yaakov, G-d will certainly bless you with Hatzlocho.

With blessing,

By
