Greeting and Blessing:

I am pleased to acknowledge receipt of your greetings and Mazel Tov on the occasion of my birthday. I appreciate indeed your warm sentiments and good wishes. These are made more meaningful, of course, in the light of your generous support of our various projects in Kfar Chabad, as well as your child Chabad House at U.C.L.A., and pledging your continued aid in helping to make our task an easier one.

In accordance with the Divine Promise to our Patriarch Abraham, "I will bless them that bless thee," may G-d reciprocate your blessings "from His full, open, holy and generous Hand." Please convey my warm regards and best wishes to all your family.

With the approach of Pesach, the "Season of our Liberation," I take this opportunity of extending to you and all yours and all friends of Lubavitch my prayerful wishes for a Kosher and inspiring Yom Tov, and true liberation from all distractions and hindrances, materially and spiritually.

Cordially,

M. Schneerson
