Greeting and Blessing:

I was pleased to receive your note about your participation in the recent Chanukah activities.

May G-d grant that the inspiration of Chanukah should be with you throughout the year, namely to keep the flame of your "inner candle" (as it is written, "Man's soul is G-d's candle") shining brightly by means of lighting the candles of Mitz-voth (as it is written, "A Mitzvo is a candle and the Torah is light") through the fulfillment of G-d's Mitzvoth every day with enthusiasm and joy.

With blessing,

m. Schneerson
